AN ORDINANCE OF

The Lords and Commons Assembled in Parliament, for the continuance of Tonnage and Poundage.

Die Sabbathi, 13. Martii, 1646.

THE Lords & Commons Assembled in Parliament, taking into consideration

A that that there is a continuance of those causes that first induced them to passe the Ordinance of Tonnage and Poundage, the affaires of the Kingdome, and other His Majesties Dominions necessitating the setting forth, and maintaining of severall Fleets of Ships at Sea

well for defence of he Kingdome, as
afety of Navigati.
on and Commerce,
do therefore hereby
Order and Ordaine.
That the respective Ordinances of parlia. ment, concerning
the subsidie of Ton.
nage and Poundage,
lated the first of July
642. and the one and twentieth

twentieth of February, 1644. together
with the Booke of Rates, agreede on by the Houſe of Com mons: and by their Order publiſhed in print: and all and every the Clauſes, Articles, and Inſtructions, in the ſaid Ordinances
and Booke of Rates
ſet downe, ſhall continue

tinue & ſtand in full force & vertue, from the 26 of March next inclusive, (the time of their expiration, unto the twenty ſix of March, vvhich ſhall bee in the yeare of our Lord 1648. inclu. ſive). And Samuell Avery, Alderman of the City of London, Richard Bateman, Charles Llyod, Chriſtopher Packe, and Walter Boothby, Marchants, the preſent Commiſſioners of the Cuſtomes, are hereby continued Commiſſioners, and Collectors of all ſuch Moneyes as ſhall be paid for Cuſtomes, or advanced by vvay of Loane, for goods and Marchandize imported

ted into, or exported out of this Kingdom of England and Dominion of Wales, & Port and Towne of Bervvick, with ſo ful povver in all particulars, as hath been granted them by any Order or Ordinance of Parliament. Provided alwaies that the whole Duties advanced vanced on Currants ſhal be imployed for the uſe of the Na vy.

Die Sabbathi, 13.
Martii. 1646.

ORdered by the Lords Aſſembled in Parliament, that this Ordinance be forthwith Printed and publiſhed.

Ioh. Brown Cler.
Parliamentorum

43522b